RIGHT CARE, RIGHT PLACE.
WHERE SHOULD I GO FOR...

Unless you are experiencing a life-threatening emergency, CONTACT YOUR PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER FIRST.

Call 911 for Critical Situations

PRIMARY CARE – Chronic conditions, preventive health and acute illnesses
- Wellness Visits
- Chronic Health Conditions
- Physical Exams
- Screenings for Blood Pressure, Cholesterol, Diabetes
- Fevers, Sore Throat, Colds, Flu
- Vaccinations
- Headaches
- Allergies
- Rashes
- Vomiting/Diarrhea
- Minor Aches/Pains
- Urinary Tract Infections

URGENT CARE – Minor illnesses when your provider is unavailable due to it being after-hours or on a weekend
- Minor Cuts Needing Stitches
- Sinus Infections
- Fevers, Sore Throat, Colds, Flu
- Ear Aches
- Pink Eye
- Burns
- Insect Stings
- Tick Bites
- Sprains
- Rashes
- Vomiting/Diarrhea
- Urinary Tract Infections

EMERGENCY DEPARTMENT – Life-threatening emergencies or acute complications that need advanced imaging or testing
- Chest Pain or Discomfort
- Slurred Speech
- Numbness
- Shortness of Breath
- Fainting/Change in Mental State
- Severe/Uncontrollable Bleeding
- Severe Vomiting/Diarrhea
- Broken Bone (with deformity or open wound)
- Seizures
- Severe Abdominal Pain
- Severe Headache
- Severe Flu
- Weakness/Numbness on One Side
- Severe/Facial Cuts (that may require stitches)
- Serious Burns
- Head or Eye Injury
- Concussions
- Dislocated Joints
- Poisoning
- Vaginal Bleeding with Pregnancy